

Western UNIVERSITY · CANADA

University of Western Ontario- School of Health Studies

Would you like to take part in a study about sex work, health, and resilience among women and transgender people in Kitchener-Waterloo-Cambridge?

If you are interested, you can take part in the following activities:

-Individual Interviews (45-60 minutes)
One-to-one private discussions

-Social Mapping(15-20 minutes)

Interactive activity where you use coloured markers on a map of the neighbourhood to mark out where you access health care and social services and other aspects of daily life

Friday November 27th and December 4th we will be doing interviews at Anishnabeg Outreach services at 151 Frederick Street, Kitchener. First come, first interviewed. 10-3 pm.

$60 for participating

This project is open to:

- women and transfolk between the ages of 18-60
- who live in the Kitchener, Waterloo, Cambridge area
- have been involved in sex work or are currently working

Your perspectives and experiences are very important and I look forward to speaking with you!

If you would like more information about the project, please contact:

Treena Orchard, Ph.D.,
Associate Professor
School of Health Studies
University of Western Ontario
519-639-9722(Cell phone)

To book an interview
contact:

Angie Murie

519-804-8033(cell)

Leave a detailed message and I'll get back to you

amurie2@uwo.ca